WHAT DO STUDENTS LEARN IN DIRECTED STUDIES?

- Organizational skills
- Time management
- Executive function skills
- Homework support
- IEP Goal areas
- Communication skills
- Netiquette

WHAT A CLASS MIGHT LOOK LIKE

- Class will begin with a warm-up/community builder
- Students will check grades and assignments
- Whole class review
- Students will move to breakout rooms for support in different subject areas.
- Teachers and Instructional Aides will support students in small group and one-on-one settings
- Closing activity or reflection at the end of the period

Additional Support

- Case Managers provide direct support in specific general education classes when needed. This might be on a day with an assessment, independent work or when a new concept is introduced.
- Case Managers have 1:1 appointment slots for students and teachers. Students need to email us to setup an appointment.
- Instructional Assistants provide support in a wide range of academic classes. They facilitate small “breakout” rooms during class, review assignments, and monitor and encourage student participation.

Push-In Services

- Ensure that students with IEPs are accessing accommodations and modifications.
- Meet with students 1:1.
- Support students as needs arise in the class.
- Consult with general education teachers.
